

CREATIVE RENEWAL

An inspiring & enlivening afternoon workshop for senior coaches

- learn powerful but simple drawing tools designed specifically for the 1-2-1 coaching experience
- expand your creative range as a coach
- build greater self-awareness about your instincts and intuition so you can better appreciate the client's perceptions
- create enjoyment, excitement and a new energy to enhance your coaching practice

Have you ever wondered how your untapped creative potential could have a remarkable impact on your coaching relationships?

As experienced coaches we have a particular interest in developing our creative instincts and intuition in order to be more fully present with clients, ensuring they become their best.

Creative Renewal workshops are a lively mixture of expressive drawing, exploring new ideas, discussion and experiential exercises. You will learn to use drawings and visual language with the client to explore subconscious feelings and thoughts which are not always so readily released through conversation.

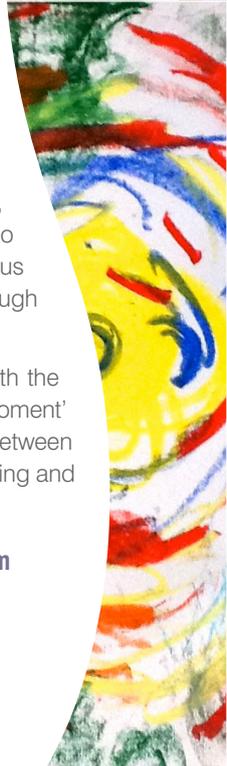

Creative Renewal workshops will give you increased confidence with the nature of ambiguity and spontaneity, enabling you to be more 'in the moment' with clients. You will gain a clearer understanding of the relationship between intellect and creative awareness, putting you deeply in touch with feeling and emotion – your clients' and your own.

THURSDAY 5TH MARCH or FRIDAY 20TH MARCH 2015 • 2.00 - 5.00pm

Rambert Studios, South Bank, London

No previous drawing experience required!

What some previous attendees have to say...

"I have coached and trained for a long time and quite often find CPD workshops do not offer anything fresh for me. Your workshop, however, offered something both new and inspiring...the best I have been to for a long time!"

Tony – Managing Editor, Media Company

"Peter led a workshop for coaches at the London Business School that I attended recently. The experience was very engaging and I found the material enjoyable, useful and deeply insightful. I would highly recommend this workshop to coaches and organisations."

Terri Morrissey – External Coach to Executive Education, LBS
